Seeking a passionate professional, with strong communication skills and who is passionate about coaching golf. An individual who can build relationships with their internal and external customers.

About Sherwood Park

Located on the outskirts of Edmonton's suburbs the hamlet of Sherwood Park is home to over 75,000 people making it Alberta's 6th largest community. It is known for its parks and recreation with the Beaver Hills biosphere providing hikinging, camping and fishing during all 4 seasons.

Being adjacent to Edmonton also provides Sherwood park with its fair share of urban amenities such as fine dining and cultural destinations. The city hosts major cultural events throughout the year, including the Edmonton Folk Music Festival and Edmonton International Fringe Theatre Festival. Year round institutions such as the Art Gallery of Alberta and Royal Alberta Museum contribute to a strong local arts and heritage community.
