Company: Regional Recreation Corporation of Wood Buffalo

Location: Fort McMurray, Alberta

The Miskanaw Golf Club and Regional Recreation Corporation of Wood Buffalo (RRC) is searching for a passionate, innovative, and people-first Manager of Golf and Grounds to inspire the team, lead the transformation and care of the entire outdoor environment—including Miskanaw Golf Club, natural and artificial sports fields, trail systems, parking lots, and outdoor facilities at both MacDonald Island Park and SMS Equipment Place. This isn't just a job—it's a chance to design, maintain, and elevate world-class spaces that bring Wood Buffalo together.

Lead With Vision. Cultivate Excellence. Grow With Us.

About RRC & Miskanaw GC:

The dream of making MacDonald Island, in the heart of Fort McMurray, the recreational center for the community officially started in 1972 with the opening of its founding amenity the Miskanaw Golf Club. Since that time, the RRC has added a number of sporting activities including stadium ball fields, football/major events stadium and the incredible indoor sporting recreational center. Furthermore, the Miskanaw Golf Club celebrated the completion of a modern redesign and redevelopment in 2015. The course continues to enhance and expand the user experience each season to meet the modern needs of its members and visitors.

At RRC, the core values—Safety, Collaboration, Innovation, Sustainability & Diversity—is the driving force behind everything they do. Leadership means more than just overseeing a course. It means nurturing a team, stewarding the land, and crafting a world-class experience that brings people together through sport and connection. Work-life balance isn't just a perk here—it's part of who they are. They believe their people do their best when they're supported, empowered, and given the time to live fully—on and off the clock.

At Miskanaw Golf Club—an 18-hole gem nestled among the boreal forest and framed by the majestic Athabasca and Clearwater rivers—you'll find more than just lush fairways and challenging greens. You'll discover a place where nature, sport, and community come together.

RRC's deep rooted vision: Together we create community.

About Fort McMurray:

Fort McMurray has evolved over the recent history. In the late 1960's a town boomed from the Oil Sands industry, has now become a world class city with a trend of younger families being the foundation of this growing community. While it is located approximately 4 hours from Edmonton, it hosts all the amenities and attracts entertainment of a larger metro center.

Fort McMurray offers a blend of economic opportunities, natural beauty, and a strong sense of community, making it a compelling place to live. Its various industries provide numerous job opportunities with competitive salaries, while its proximity to Wood Buffalo National Park and the surrounding boreal forest offers terrific outdoor recreational activities. Additionally, the city boasts a diverse and affordable housing market, a walkable downtown, and the facilities at RRC on MacDonald Island make recreation a 12-month option. Making it a comfortable and vibrant place to call home.

The city has more than 75,000 full time residents. The town has a number of newer housing builds and commercial facilities. The climate of Fort McMurray might surprise you. While it is in northern Alberta, summer months regularly see sustained temperatures in the mid 20c degrees. It is a dry climate in the summer and winter.

Whether you're from around these parts or you are looking to make your way here, you'll find Fort McMurray Wood Buffalo to be very welcoming. From small communities surrounded by nature to living large in the city. You can explore the amazing communities that are a part of Wood Buffalo here
